

A very clever person said to me a while back:

“A cocktail is the cheapest luxury item you can buy”

What a gem of wisdom this is. Made correctly, a good cocktail should be tailored to your tastes, contain premium brands that have been created or refined painstakingly from the finest raw materials and expertise. From the start of distilling the spirit, to the perfect mix of ice and garnish, you can end up with quality to rival the best Mercedes Benz.

Montague and Capulet

Lemon myrtle vodka | Crushed apple |
House ginger foam

17

4 Leaf Clover

Westwinds gin | Blackberry | Lime |
Gomme | Thai basil

16

Coconut Pandan Margarita

Pandan infused blanco tequila | Lime |
Agave | Dehydrated coconut | Salt rim

16

Melons and Meat

4 pillars gin | Rockmelon | Amaro | Blood
orange | Egg white | Peychauds bitters |
Parma ham

17

Botanic Cobbler

Manzanilla sherry | Vodka | Lemon balm
syrup | Pink grapefruit | Pineapple | Orange
bitters | Crushed ice

16

Tiki Farm

American whiskey | Islay whisky | Amaro |
Raspberry | Lemon | Tiki bitters |
Fresh egg white

16

Salted Plum 'Slurpie'

Umeshu | Ron zacapa | Salted plum |
Falernum | Sparkling wine

12

Gin and Juice

Westwinds gin + daily pressed juice

9